

Steven Plummer Named Golf Business Manager for Agri-Turf

Steven Plummer, CGCS, will lead Agri-Turf's expansion into California's golf market.

Santa Fe Springs, Calif. – January 3, 2017 – Steven Plummer, CGCS, has joined Agri-Turf Distributing as the Golf Business Manager. Plummer will lead the company's expansion into the golf course market in California.

Prior to joining Agri-Turf, Plummer served as the general manager for Tustin Ranch Golf Club. Since 2007, he has managed Champion Golf Services Inc, providing professional staffing services for the golf industry.

He is a graduate of Kansas State University where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, specializing in turfgrass management, and is a certified golf course superintendent. Plummer has served on the Anaheim/Orange County Visitor & Convention Bureau's Board of Directors. He served as a board member for the First Tee of Orange County, and is past president of the California Golf Course Owner's Association. Plummer is a recognized leader in California's golf industry and the 2015 recipient of the Golf Course Owners Association's Ted Horton Distinguished Service Award.

"We have had a long-standing relationship with Steve over the years and feel very fortunate to have him join our team, and lead the company's expansion into the California golf market," said Agri-Turf President Rich Records.